

Brings results, and that is the object. The Mahoning Dispatch carries messages in advertising form to a large number of people in all parts of the county. You will be more than pleased with results if you advertise in The Dispatch.

Washingtonville

Work is progressing on the good roads. The road is finished from the east as far as the railroad crossing in town. They are now coming in from the cross roads west of town, and about two weeks more will see the road finished.

Miss Margaret Kennedy is ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harry Culler. Wm. Rohrer, who has been on the sick list for several weeks, is able to be about.

Mr. and Mrs. August Mathey received word from overseas last week that their son Roy was missing and it is thought that he was captured and is being held prisoner by the Germans. Paul Semelner writes home that he is still at the front, along the firing line. He and Walter Detrow from west of town have been in several big battles. Both have so far escaped injury.

On account of invoicing at the Mullins' shop in Salem Monday several men from here employed there were idle that day.

Miners in this vicinity are not losing any time. The country mines around here are helping to fill the great demand for coal.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Needham of Canton were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Needham.

Mrs. Ralph Wylan and Elizabeth Ann Kenneth Platt of Youngstown visited Sunday at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Holt.

Joseph Thorpe of East Liverpool was a caller in town Tuesday.

Miss Marie King returned Friday from Steubenville after three weeks' visit with her sister.

Mrs. Alex Scheffle of Salem visited Sunday at the home of Mr. Geo. Schettina.

Misses Bessie and Birdie Ward of Leetonia visited with Miss Lydia King over Sunday.

Misses Margaret and Mary McAndrews and Frank Maize were Salem callers Saturday evening.

Miss Edith Matzenbaugh of East Palestine visited at her home west of town last Sunday.

Miss Helen Pillar of Youngstown visited here with her mother over Sunday.

Glady Shive of Salem was a guest last Thursday of her aunt, Mrs. Samuel Atkinson.

Mrs. Layton DeLawter and sons of Rochester were Sunday guests of her parents, H. Smedley and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. John Leason were Salem visitors Saturday.

Ed L. S. Herman, formerly of Leetonia, remembered friends here with a card from Camp Pike, Ark., where he is stationed.

Carl Hildebrand and family of Salem were Sunday guests of Mrs. Louise Vignon.

Mrs. Daniel Stephenson and daughter visited Monday with her brother Edwin and family in Columbiana.

Thomas Grindle and wife of Springfield, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Grindle and Miss Esther Calvin of Locust Grove were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson.

Two new cases of influenza are reported this week. Mrs. James Bell and Master Wayne Russell are confined to their homes. Other cases are all doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Slack of Pittsburgh visited here over Sunday at the home of her sisters, Mrs. David and J. C. Welkart.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Welkart were Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hileman at Leetonia.

Ivan Davis, who has been stationed at Camp Carolina, sailed for France last week.

Mrs. B. Possage received a photo post card of her son John in France. He has recovered from injuries received while in battle.

Roy Roller and wife of Youngstown were Sunday guests of his mother, Mrs. Charley Roller. His brother Eugene accompanied them home for a few days' visit.

Aaron Broadbent, who left last week to make his home at the county infirmary, came back in time to cast his vote on election day.

Mrs. Ralph Warner received word this week that her husband was in New York ready to set sail for overseas.

W. C. Welkart and family of Leetonia were Friday visitors at the home of his parents.

Washingtonville is again without a shoe cobbler, Arthur Shaffer leaving to make his home with his son in Leetonia. While here Mr. Shaffer was always busy. This leaves a good opening for some one to start in the business.

Not much doing in town the last few weeks. Everybody staying at home on account of the "flu".

Rev. and Mrs. Richardson visited their daughter, Mrs. Joseph Stamp, in Alliance over Sunday.

Mrs. Clifford Bare of Salem spent Tuesday here at the home of her parents.

Geo. Sommerville accompanied her brother-in-law, Mr. Wells, to Pittsburgh this week. Mr. Wells while visiting here was taken suddenly ill and had to return home.

Miss Anna Dallynple has resumed her duties as clerk of the Co-operative store after a few days' absence on account of sickness in the family.

Word was received from John Woods that he is enjoying the sights in Washington. He will there join the first Engineer troops.

A supply of cartons has been received at Red Cross headquarters for use of relatives and friends in sending Christmas remembrances to the sons and brothers. Anyone wishing these cartons can get them at the homes of Mrs. O. Bossert or Mrs. David Welkart. If you have the label which must be received for each box. No boxes will be accepted after Nov. 12. All packages will be sent to Lisbon chapter the day following this date for shipment.

A letter just received by Norman Kyle of Salem, dated Oct. 1, says that the company cook of the 332nd Infantry, now fighting on the Italian front, received a shipment of flour "From Salem, Ohio, U. S. A." The local boys in that company were so enthusiastic over receiving the flour from their home town that the cook was given permission to celebrate by baking cakes.

namon rolls. This would be a treat for some of our boys from town who are in this company.

Everyone is glad to hear that the food administrator has allowed an extra pound of sugar to each member of the family which will make an allowance of three pounds instead of two. Loron Taylor is confined to his home by sickness.

ISLAND

Nov. 6—Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Good entertained at Sunday dinner Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Calvin and daughter Nellie of Locust Grove, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Calvin and son Mark, Miss Lizzie Good and Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Lehman and daughter Mollie.

Mrs. John Teacher and two children of New York who had spent several months with her parents in Wisconsin, stopped here and were over Sunday guests of Fred Brudner and family.

A. W. Detrow and family and Mrs. Fannie Lehman were Sunday guests of Wm. Ziegler and family in East Lewisstown.

Joseph Horst and Mart Eschelman of Wayne county spent the week end with relatives here.

Mrs. Fannie Witmer, Miss Hannah Wenger and Miss Mattie Rohrer called on Mrs. E. S. Knopp Saturday afternoon.

M. B. Templin of Calla called on D. R. Lehman Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Weaver and Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Weaver spent Sunday in the home of Harry Shwalter.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin and family were in Mineral Ridge Saturday night.

After having finished his fall work, David Klingensmith is assisting in building the good road by his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ulysses Mentzer and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mentzer and son of Youngstown, Homer Lehman and family of North Lima and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Witmer were entertained Sunday at D. D. Witmer's.

Homer Schaeffer was a Sunday guest of Herman Swope.

H. H. Lesher assisted D. R. Lehman in capturing his runaway pig Thursday.

Walter Johnston recently harvested a fine crop of popcorn.

Steve Martin's visited his brother John and family at North Lima, Sunday.

Henry Schaeffer is marketing some fine turnips for Harvey Fisher.

Aaron Christophel and sisters Lydia and Mrs. Mary Basinger visited Peter Zenger and family Sunday.

Adam Wenger and family entertained Sunday. Henry Rhiel and sister Fannie, Phyllis and Emma Witmer, Abram Martin, Miss Lizzie Rhiel, Misses Mary and Minnie Rhodes, Ben Lehman and sister Priscilla, Merle Witmer and sisters Iva and Nettie.

Rev. and Mrs. Allen Rickart called on Mrs. Susan Lehman Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Weaver and D. R. Lehman were in Youngstown Friday.

Henry Burns and family, Mrs. Elizabeth Burns of East Lewisstown, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lehman and daughters Edith and Alta were Sunday visitors at S. G. McClung's.

M. G. Culp is working with the good roads improvement gang.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ziegler and daughter Mary of North Lima spent the Sabbath with Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Lehman.

Mrs. Mary Knopp, who has been assisting her sister, Mrs. Clayton Rohrer, in the home of the latter, returned home Tuesday.

Sarah Schaeffer recently spent a few days with Mildred Frankford at Washingtonville.

Miss Mary Knopp, John Horst, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Good were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Litten.

Emanuel Bickler is employed at the Columbiana pump works.

Penrose Schaeffer was a Sunday guest of John Cullar.

Paul Ziegler and family motored to Pennsylvania Wednesday.

Charles Harmon had business in Salem Tuesday.

Joe Burkholder and family of Akron called on E. J. Swope and family Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. Witmer moved to East Lewisstown Wednesday.

Edith Rickart is recovering from an attack of "flu".

Joseph Swope is assisting Adin Miller with his fall work.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schaeffer and daughter Sarah, Noah Weaver and family and Abe Weaver and daughter Mary were Sunday visitors at M. M. Ziegler's.

H. R. Lehman and son Norman spent Monday in Leetonia unloading their new Moline tractor.

Conrad Burg and family and Miss Edith Yoder of Leetonia and Rev. and Mrs. Alrick were Sunday guests at John Detrow's.

Rev. Harvey Horst and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Lovina Horst.

Hannah Joseph and Anna Wenger are on the sick list.

Mrs. Susan Blosser's condition remains unchanged.

Mr. Calvin recently purchased a Hummable runabout.

EAST LEWISTOWN

Mrs. Nancy Blosser and Mrs. Wm. Whitmer were Sunday visitors with Barbara Swope.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Mellinger on Sunday evening visited the latter's aunt, Mrs. Susan Blosser, who is very poorly.

The snow last Friday reminded of the coming of winter.

A supply of cartons has been received after having been ill with influenza.

Chas. Marks of North Lima was in the village last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Calvin of Locust Grove were at Frank Crumbaker's last Sunday.

A. S. Brubaker is getting out lumber to build a stable.

Mrs. Wm. Harrold and children of Columbiana are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lesher, several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Detrow and Miss Fannie Lehman of Island and Benjamin Ziegler and wife of North Lima were Sunday visitors at Wm. Ziegler's.

MILLVILLE

Nov. 6—Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Coy have been notified that their son Harold was wounded in action on the western front in France. Private Coy entered military service with the Coast Guard Sept. 19, 1917; in November he was transferred to Camp Pike, Ark., and in June 1918, was sent overseas. Harold writes he was wounded in going "over the top," being struck above the left knee by a piece of shrapnel. However, ignoring the pain and weakness sustained from his wound, he rushed forward and took six Germans and succeeded in bringing them back prisoners before he was overcome by weakness from the injury. He was then borne to a Red Cross first aid post by a comrade and given relief. He is Co. B, 23rd Infantry, and this is the second time he has been "over the top." Three cheers for Harold!

George Crutchley was in Greenford Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sheen visited. Ann Good of Franklin Square Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Holwick and daughters, Miss Hazel and Winifred, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ryan Holwick of Canton.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Howells have received word from their son Thome, who is in France. He is well and is doing his bit for liberty.

Mrs. A. R. Greenmeyer is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. William Roach, in Salem.

Mrs. Frank Zimmerman spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Roller.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Orr were Sunday guests of friends in Youngstown.

The family on the A. Zimmerman farm received notice of the death of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Richardson by the Ryer who had demolished the auto.

A very interesting event was the arrival of a pigeon in camp which was freed by a Leetonia family carrying a card with name and message of the sender. When captured it showed signs of weariness because of a slight injury it had received. "This would be very interesting to your pupils as all schools are anxious to learn about birds and their usefulness," says Archie Holland, who is of the quarter-master corps, Camp Gordon, Ga., when writing to a friend in this village.

Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers Baird and children of Tiedeman spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Shepherd.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Frantz of Salem were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn.

Miss Amy and Gladys Haney of Leetonia were callers in the village Sunday.

Several cases of influenza reported from this community are improving very rapidly.

Mrs. A. D. McKellar of Chicago who visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holland, was called home by illness in the family.

Rev. F. B. Mayer and son Theodore of Salem called on Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Frederick Saturday.

LOOUST GROVE

Nov. 6—Clark Calvin and family of Youngstown spent Sunday with his parents, P. D. Calvin and wife.

M. G. Huffman, wife and son Parrie and daughter Gertrude of Clarksville spent Sunday with J. D. Feicht and family.

Rev. H. B. Hazen and children of Sharon, Pa., and Warren Cool and mother were Sunday visitors at E. I. Roller's.

Emory Cope and wife, Mrs. Melissa Calvin and Mrs. J. D. Cook of Salem called on C. J. and E. I. Roller's, Sunday.

J. W. Calvin and family motored to Canfield Sunday afternoon.

F. W. Calvin was in Youngstown Monday.

Raymond Lamb and wife of Clarksville called on Anthony Less one day recently.

Mr. Wunderlin and family spent Sunday at H. R. and Elmer Calvin's.

E. N. Beardsley and family visited at Clark Zimmerman's Sunday.

Ira Wisler and son Irvin and Howard and Harold Feicht helped Raymond Lamb harvest potatoes, Tuesday.

Miss Hattie Calvin of Greenford, Mrs. Elvira Culp of Maple Grove and Mrs. Fred Harmon spent Tuesday with Mrs. Irene Calvin.

Mrs. Schwend of Cascade, Iowa, came to see her daughter, Mrs. Anthony Less.

J. B. Calvin was in Youngstown Wednesday.

Edith Calvin and daughter Esther called on Mrs. Mary Roller, Tuesday.

L. S. Weston and wife were Sunday visitors at Frank Crumbaker's in East Lewisstown.

Mrs. Frank Horis was in Leetonia Tuesday.

DAMASCOUS

Nov. 6—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bailey Sunday and will be christened Paul Chester.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Cameron are the proud parents of a son—born Sunday morning. His name is Robert Wayne.

Of Tuesday Prof. Zimmerman moved his family to Castalia, O., where he is superintendent of schools.

Mrs. Melvin Ward of Oil City, Pa., arrived Saturday to spend some weeks with her sister, Miss Jessie Powell.

Church services were held at the M. E. Church Sunday—the first for a month, and a good attendance is reported.

The ban was lifted from the schools in Goshen, Garfield, Beloit and Smith townships and all the teachers have reported for duty except H. T. Blue.

The high school principal who has been delayed a few days by an attack of influenza.

The Magazine club met with Mrs. French on the Garfield road Tuesday afternoon and the program was a literary one—with a discussion of "Characteristics of Modern Fiction" and an original story by one of its members.

The committee are at work for the farmers' institute to be held in Damascus the third week in December.

A new feature this year will be a literary one—by the Salom, Damascus, Beloit and Siding merchants for the best farm products and canning and baking specimens.

Nov. 6—Wm. Clayton and family of Leetonia, Ohio, are visiting here at the home of his brother, Oscar Clayton.

Wm. and Shannon Roof received word from Pennsylvania last week of the deaths of their sister, Mrs. Lucy Smith, and Mrs. Frank following influenza and pneumonia.

NORTH LIMA

Nov. 6—The general store of L. M. Toot was entered by unknown parties Saturday night and a lot of valuable goods stolen. Mr. Toot had occasion to go to the store Sunday morning and discovered that his shelves had been emptied of shoes, dry goods, candies and miscellaneous articles of merchandise. He estimates his loss at from $700 to $1000. The thieves evidently used an automobile to effect their escape as auto tracks could be detected in the soft ground until they reached the brick highway when all trace was lost. Mr. Toot is of the opinion that at least one of the parties entered the store during the Saturday evening rush and concealed himself in a convenient hiding place. The store was locked and none of the doors or windows had been tampered with. A reward of $150 has been offered for the apprehension of the thieves and return of the stolen goods.

Miss Ruby Rowe, 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Rowe, living near the Coal Mine Stop, died Wednesday at the family home following an illness of one week with influenza. Private funeral services were held Thursday with interment at North Lima.

Mrs. S. W. Glenn of Youngstown visited with her daughter, Mrs. R. E. Elmer, and family Sunday.

W. H. Ruhlman is reported seriously ill.

J. E. Glenn and family spent Sunday with relatives in Columbiana.

The influenza quarantine continues although the situation is not any worse. A few mild cases of "flu" are reported.

Sweater yarn is again being given out by the Red Cross Auxiliary. Call on Mrs. J. M. Hahn for yarn.

The ladies met Wednesday with Miss Eleanor Hahn and made more for the war sufferers.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fry have moved to the William Day farm.

Misses Dorothy and Florence Marks of Columbiana were visitors at Jacob Elser's Sunday.

Ms Margaret Curry of Akron has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Chas. Liston, and family.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heasley of Slippery Rock, Pa. Mrs. Heasley was formerly Alice Freer, well known here.

Friends here attended the funeral of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith of New Albany, who died in New Springfield last week.

GREENFORD

Nov. 6—Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Phillips and sons and Mrs. Jacob Myers of Salem called at J. W. Walter's last Tuesday.

George Grover purchased the Mary Haffey property for a home one day last week.

There was a slight fall of snow here last Friday.

Miss Margaret Post of Salem spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rhodes.

Eunice McMahon of Youngstown spent last week here with her aunt, Mrs. Charles Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith of Gettysburg and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Smith of New Albany were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Calvin.

Mr. Hamilton is moving into his new home on the Toot farm.

Mrs. Frank Griffith of Locust Grove spent last Sunday visiting in Salem. The township trustees held their regular meeting last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Webb and Miss Avarilla Barnes of south of Salem called on Misses Lydia and Barbara Rhodes last Sunday.

G. S. Bush and family were Columbiana shoppers last Monday.

Mrs. Bert Knight and daughter Ruth have returned from a visit with the former's parents in Jackson township.

Chauncey Buck and Mr. Swengler, who live just across the line in Jackson township, are successful poultry raisers, each having about 1,000 white Leghorn chickens.

The sick in the village are all improving.

Word has been received of the serious illness of Mrs. Reiff, caused by appendicitis. She and Rev. Reiff have been visiting near Tiffin.

The household goods of Mary Haffey will be sold here at public auction Saturday, Nov. 9, at 1 p. m.

ROSEMONT

Nov. 6—Wm. Clayton and family of Leetonia, Ohio, are visiting here at the home of his brother, Oscar Clayton.

Wm. and Shannon Roof received word from Pennsylvania last week of the deaths of their sister, Mrs. Lucy Smith, and Mrs. Frank following influenza and pneumonia.

Garfield Smith and family visited in Benton over Sunday.

Mrs. Philip Lemhart of Ellsworth spent last Thursday here with her aunt, Mrs. Carrie Arnold.

Mrs. Ray Forney and son Randall of Youngstown visited her parents here last week.

James Cessna and family visited in Milton Sunday.

Mrs. Myron Arnold and Mrs. Bell of Youngstown were here Saturday.

A. S. Gilmer and family of Newton township spent Sunday here with Mrs. C. A. Rose.

Mrs. Frank Miller spent several days last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Elsie Schlaubach, in Youngstown.

A. Rose of Niles visited his mother, Mrs. H. B. Rose, over Sunday. Oscar Clayton was in Niles Monday.

The four children of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Fowara, who have been very sick with influenza and pneumonia, are improving.

Fred Kline and daughter Lulu were in Warren Saturday.

BOARDMAN

Nov. 6—H. A. Lehman visited at Frank Agnew's one day last week.

Word has been received by O. H. Stanford that their son Herbert of Wooster, who has been ill with Spanish influenza, is recovering.

Ethel Walters is confined to bed with the flu. Her niece, Virginia Simons, who was also stricken with the disease, has recovered.

Lief Garver is finishing a porch to his new house.

Charles Strom has almost completed a new greenhouse. He will grow lettuce in winter and tomatoes in spring.

Paul Rukenbrod and Norman Agnew called on Howard Kohler of Springfield township Sunday afternoon.

Guy Sigle, Orville Sigle and Albert Rukenbrod were election judges at Brownlee Woods.

The members of the Advisory Council of the Dairymen's Sales corporation concerning the Youngstown market held a meeting at the town hall Friday evening.

Frank Agnew and son Elbert were in Canfield Saturday.

While Wm. Davis was feeding his pigs one day last week, one of them became infuriated and attacked him, tearing a long deep gash in his leg.

A doctor sewed up the wound which is still very painful.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. L. Alldorfer and daughter Mary spent a few days at Oberlin visiting their son Allen who is taking military training there.

H. C. Heintzelman and family visited their son, F. C. Heintzelman, of Shady Hollow Sunday.